The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ Let him that miniſtreth read with a loud voice theſe Sentences of Scripture; and then ſay the Exhortation that followeth.

Exhort, that firſt of all ſupplications, prayers, interceſſions, and giving of thanks be made for all men: 1 Tim. 2. 1.

For Kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlineſs and honeſty. 2.

For this is good and acceptable in the ſight of God our Saviour. 3.

DEarly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in ſundry places, to acknowledge and confeſs our manifold ſins and wickedneſs, and that we ſhould not diſſemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confeſs them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveneſs of the ſame, by his infinite goodneſs and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our ſins before God, yet ought we moſt chiefly ſo to do, when we aſſemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul: Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

ALmighty and most merciful Father, We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy laws, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults; Restore thou them that are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord; and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone standing; the People still kneeling.

ALmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and and live, and hath given power and commandment to his Miniſters, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the abſolution and remiſſion of their ſins: He pardoneth and abſolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Goſpel. Wherefore let us beſeech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that thoſe things may pleaſe him which we do at this preſent, and that the reſt of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, ſo that at the laſt we may come to his eternal joy, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

¶ The People ſhall anſwer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter kneel, and begin the Lords Prayer; the People alſo repeating it with him.

OUr Father which art in heaven; hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewiſe he ſhall ſay,

O Lord, open thou our lips.

Anſw. And our mouth ſhall ſhew forth thy praiſe.

Prieſt.

O God, make ſpeed to ſave us.

Anſw.

Answer.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

Answer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest.

Praise ye the Lord.

Answer.

The Lords name be praised.

¶ In stead of Venite exultemus shall be sung or said this Hymn following; one Verse by the Priest, and another by the Clerk and people.

Ps.115.1. NOt unto us, O Lord, not unto us: but unto thy Name be the praise.

Ps.75.1. Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks: yea unto thee do we give thanks.

Ps.71.17. For great things are they, that thou hast done: O God, who is like unto thee?

Ps.77.14, 13. Thou art the God, that doth wonders: Who is so great a God as our God?

Ps.126.3,4 The Lord hath done great things for us: yea the Lord hath done great things for us, for which we rejoyce.

Ps.44.5. Thou art our King, O God: the Help that is done

Ps.44.6. Through thee have we overthrown our enemies: and in thy Name have we trod them under, that rise up against us.

But it is thou, that ſaveſt us from our enemies: 8.

neither was it our own arm, that helped us;

They had ſwallowed us up quick: when they 2.

of the proud had gone even over our ſouls.

But praiſed be the Lord: who hath not given 5.

BRing unto the Lord, O ye mighty, bring young rams unto the Lord: aſcribe unto the Lord worſhip, and ſtrength.

Give the Lord the honour due unto his Name: worſhip the Lord with holy worſhip.

It is the Lord, that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God, that maketh the thunder.

It is the Lord, that ruleth the Sea; the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedar-trees: yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Libanus.

He maketh them alſo to skip like a calf: Libanus alſo, and Sirion like a young unicorn.

The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire, the voice of the Lord ſhaketh the wilderneſs: yea, the Lord ſhaketh the wilderneſs of Cades.

The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to bring forth young, and diſcovereth the thick buſhes: in his temple doth every man ſpeak of his honour.

The Lord ſitteth above the water-floud: and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.

The Lord ſhall give ſtrength unto his people: the Lord ſhall give his people the bleſſing of peace.

Exultate, juſti. Pſal. xxxiii.

REjoyce in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the juſt to be thankful.

Praiſe the Lord with harp: ſing praiſes unto him with the lute, and inſtrument of ten ſtrings.

Sing unto the Lord a new ſong: ſing praiſes luſtily unto him with a good courage.

For the word of the Lord is true: and all his works are faithful.

He loveth righteouſneſs and judgement: the earth is full of the goodneſs of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hoſts of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the ſea together, as it were upon an heap: and layeth up the deep, as in a treaſure-houſe.

Let all the earth fear the Lord: ſtand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world;

For he ſpake, and it was done: he commanded, and it ſtood faſt.

The Lord bringeth the counſel of the heathen to nought: and maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect, and caſteth out the counſels of Princes.

The counſel of the Lord ſhall endure for ever:

and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

Blessed are the people, whose God is the Lord Jehovah: and blessed are the folk, that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance.

The Lord looked down from heaven, and beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling he considereth all them that dwell on the earth.

He fashioneth all the hearts of them: and understandeth all their works.

There is no king, that can be saved by the multitude of an host: neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.

A horse is counted but a vain thing to save a man: neither shall he deliver any man by his great strength.

Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him: and upon them that put their trust in his mercy.

To deliver their soul from death: and to feed them in the time of dearth.

Our soul hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our help and our shield.

For our heart shall rejoyce in him: because we have hoped in his holy Name.

Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us: like as we do put our trust in thee.

Deus noster refugium. Psal. xlvi.

GOd is our hope and strength: a very present help in trouble.

Therefore

Therefore will we not fear though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midſt of the ſea.

Though the waters thereof rage, and ſwell: and though the mountains ſhake at the tempeſt of the ſame.

The rivers of the ſtoud thereof ſhall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the moſt Higheſt.

God is in the midſt of her, therefore ſhall ſhe not be removed: God ſhall help her, and that right early.

The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved: but God hath ſhewed his voice, and the earth ſhall melt away.

The Lord of hoſts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what deſtruction he hath brought upon the earth.

He maketh wars to ceaſe in all the world: he breaketh the bowe, and knappeth the ſpear in ſunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

Be ſtill then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hoſts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

The firſt Leſſon is Exod. XV. 1. to v. 20.

THen ſang Moſes and the children of Iſrael this ſong unto the Lord, and ſpake, ſaying, I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my fathers God, and I will exalt him. The Lord is a man of warre: the Lord is his name. Pharaohs chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea. The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone. Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power; thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemie. And in the greatnes of thine excellencie thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble. And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together: the flouds stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea. The enemie said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil: my lust shall be satisfied upon them: I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them, they sank as lead in the mighty waters. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, amongst the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holines, fearful in praises, doing wonders? Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation. The people shall hear and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabi-habitants of Paleſtina. Then the dukes of Edom ſhall be amazed: the mighty men of Moab trembling ſhall take hold upon them: all the inhabitants of Canaan ſhall melt away. Fear and dread ſhall fall upon them, by the greatneſs of thine arm they ſhall be as ſtill as a ſtone, till thy people paſs over, O Lord till the people paſs over which thou haſt purchaſed. Thou ſhalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O Lord, which thou haſt made for thee to dwell in: in the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have eſtabliſhed. The Lord ſhall reign for ever and ever. For the horſe of Pharaoh went in with his chariots, and with his horſemen into the ſea, and the Lord brought again the waters of the ſea upon them: but the children of Iſrael went on dry-land in the mids of the ſea.

¶ After the Firſt Leſſon ſhall follow Te Deum Laudamus in Engliſh.

WE praiſe thee O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worſhip thee: the Father everlaſting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin and Seraphin: continually do cry,

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven and earth are full of the Majeſty: of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apoſtles: praiſe thee.

The

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs: praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee.

The Father: of an infinite Majesty.

Thine honourable: true, and only Son.

Also the holy Ghost: the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory: O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst not abhor the Virgins womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints: in glory everlasting.

O Lord save thy people: and bless thine heritage.

Govern them: and lift them up for ever.

Day by day: we magnifie thee.

And we worship thy Name: ever world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.

O Lord,

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our truſt is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I truſted: let me never be confounded.

For the ſecond Leſſon, 1 Pet. II.

Wherefore laying aſide all malice, and all guile, and hypocriſies, and envies, and all evil ſpeakings; As new-born babes deſire the ſincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If ſo be ye have taſted that the Lord is gracious: To whom coming as unto a living ſtone, diſallowed indeed of men, but choſen of God, and precious, Ye alſo as lively ſtones, are built up a ſpiritual houſe, an holy prieſthood, to offer up ſpiritual ſacrifices, acceptable to God by Jeſus Chriſt. Wherefore it is contained in the ſcripture; Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-ſtone, elect, precious, and he that believeth on him ſhall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe, he is precious; but unto them which be diſobedient, the ſtone which the builders diſallowed, the ſame is made the head of the corner, And a ſtone of ſtumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which ſtumble at the word, being diſobedient, whereunto alſo they were appointed. But ye are a choſen generation, a royal prieſthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye ſhould ſhew forth the praiſes of him who hath called you out of darkneſs into his marvellous light: Which in time paſt were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy,

but

but now have obtained mercy. Dearly beloved, I beseech you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles, that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works which they shall behold, glorifie God in the day of visitation. Submit your selves to every ordinance of man, for the Lords sake; whether it be to the King as supreme, Or unto governours, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men; love the brotherhood: Fear GOD; Honour the King. Servants be subject to your masters with all fear, not onely to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps. Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth. Who when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatned not, but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we being dead

dead to ſin, ſhould live unto righteouſneſs; by whoſe ſtripes ye were healed. For ye were as ſheep going aſtray, but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Biſhop of your ſouls.

BLeſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael: for he hath viſited and redeemed his people.

And hath raiſed up a mighty ſalvation for us: in the houſe of his ſervant David.

As he ſpake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which have been ſince the world began.

That we ſhould be ſaved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us.

To perform the mercy promiſed to our forefathers: and to remember his holy covenant.

To perform the oath which he ſware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us;

That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies: might ſerve him without fear;

In holineſs and righteouſneſs before him: all the days of our life.

And thou Child ſhalt be called the Prophet of the Higheſt: for thou ſhalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways.

To give knowledge of ſalvation unto his people: for the remiſſion of their ſins.

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-ſpring from on high hath viſited us.

To give light to them that ſit in darkneſs, and in the ſhadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid the Creed by the Miniſter, and the people ſtanding.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jeſus Chriſt his onely Son our Lord; who was conceived by the holy Ghoſt, born of the Virgin Mary, ſuffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he deſcended into hell; the third day he roſe again from the dead; he aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he ſhall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the holy Ghoſt, the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveneſs of ſins, the reſurrection of the body, and the life everlaſting. Amen.

¶ And after that, theſe Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Miniſter firſt pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Anſwer.

And with thy ſpirit.

Miniſter.

Let us pray.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Chriſt have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Miniſter, Clerks and people, ſhall ſay the Lords prayer with a loud voice

OUr Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Prieſt ſtanding up, ſhall ſay,

O Lord ſhew thy mercy upon us.

Anſwer.

And grant us thy ſalvation.

Prieſt.

O Lord ſave the King.

Anſwer.

And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Prieſt.

Indue thy Miniſters with righteouſneſs.

Anſwer.

And make thy choſen people joyful.

Prieſt.

O Lord ſave thy people.

Anſwer.

And bleſs thine inheritance.

Prieſt.

Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Anſwer.

Becauſe there is none other that fighteth for us, but onely thou, O God.

Prieſt.

O God make clean our hearts within us.

Anſwer.

And take not thy holy Spirit from us.

¶ In ſtead of the firſt Collect at Morning Prayer ſhall theſe two be uſed.

O Almighty God, the ſoveraign Commander of all the world, in whoſe hand is power and might which none is able to withſtand; We bleſs and magnifie thy great and glorious Name for this happy victory, the whole glory whereof we do aſcribe to thee, who art the only giver of victory. And, we beſeech thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy Goſpel, the honour of our Soveraign, and, as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And, we beſeech thee, give us ſuch a ſenſe of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulneſs, ſuch as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy, and obedient walking before thee all our days, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord: To whom with thee and the holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, ſo in particular for this victory and deliverance, be all glory and honour world without end. Amen.

O Almighty God, who art a ſtrong tower of defence unto thy ſervants againſt the face of their enemies; We yield thee praiſe and thankſgiving for our deliverance from thoſe great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compaſſed. We acknowledge it thy goodneſs that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; beſeeching thee ſtill to continue ſuch thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour

Saviour and mighty deliverer, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ The ſecond Collect for peace.

O God, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom ſtandeth our eternal life, whoſe ſervice is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble ſervants in all aſſaults of our enemies, that we ſurely truſting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adverſaries, through the might of Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ The third Collect for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlaſting God, who haſt ſafely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the ſame with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no ſin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy ſight, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

¶ Here followeth the Litany.

O God the Father of Heaven: have mercy upon us miſerable ſinners.

O God the Father of Heaven: have mercy upon us miſerable ſinners.

Remember not Lord our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our ſins: ſpare us good Lord, ſpare thy people whom thou haſt redeemed with thy moſt precious bloud, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us good Lord.

From all evil and miſchief, from ſin, from the crafts and aſſaults of the devil, from thy wrath, and from everlaſting damnation,

Good Lord deliver us.

By the myſtery of thy holy Incarnation, by thy holy Nativity and Circumciſion, by thy Baptiſm, Faſting, and Temptation,

Have mercy upon us.

O Christ hear us.

O Christ hear us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Christ have mercy upon us.

Christ have mercy upon us.

Lord have mercy upon us,

Lord have mercy upon us.

Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

Priest.

O Lord, deal not with us after our sins.

Answer.

Anſwer.

Neither reward us after our iniquities.

Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that deſpiſeſt not the ſighing of a contrite heart, nor the deſire of ſuch as be ſorrowful, mercifully aſſiſt our prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and adverſities, whenſoever they oppreſs us: and graciouſly hear us, that thoſe evils which the craft and ſubtilty of the devil or man worketh againſt us, be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodneſs they may be diſperſed, that we thy ſervants being hurt by no perſecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

O Lord ariſe, help us, and deliver us for thy Names ſake.

O God we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didſt in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord ariſe, help us, and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghoſt.

Anſwer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Chriſt.

Graciouſly look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the ſorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the ſins of thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever vouchſafe to hear us, O Chriſt.

Graciouſly hear us, O Chriſt;

Graciouſly hear us, O Lord Chriſt.

Prieſt.

O Lord, let thy mercy be ſhewed upon us.

Anſwer.

As we do put our truſt in thee.

Let us pray,

WE humbly beſeech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all thoſe evils that we moſt righteouſly have deſerved: and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole truſt and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore ſerve thee in holineſs and pureneſs of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediator and Advocate Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O Moſt gracious and glorious Lord God, who by thy great power haſt made, and by thine infinite wiſdom doſt diſpoſe and order all things, the Protector of thoſe that truſt in thee, and their Deliverer in time of their diſtreſs: Our Enemies compaſſed us about on every ſide, but thou haſt alſo compaſſed us about with deliverance: They were many, and did rage horribly, but thou, O Lord, who dwelleſt on high art mightier; They intended that miſchief, which through thy goodneſs to to us they were not able to perform; And when they had marked us out for ruine, thou didst then bring upon them their destruction. Out of the deep of the Sea we cried unto thee, O Lord, and thou didst hear us out of the depth of thy mercy, which hath more prevailed with thee to save us, than our many great sins to destroy us. We acknowledge and confess, O our God, that it is not our own strength that hath helped us, nor the number of our Ships, nor the courage of our Souldiers, nor yet the conduct of our Commanders, but thy alone wisdom and power that hath defeated the counsels and broken the strength of our Adversaries in pieces. It is thine own right hand that purchased us this Victory, a Victory beyond all example great and glorious, compleat and cheap, in the preservation of our Ships, and sparing of our persons. We want words to express our thankfulness, and thoughts to conceive the greatness of these thy manifold Deliverances which thou hast wrought for us; yet be thou pleased to accept the best praises that we can give, which we desire now to render unto thee from the bottom of our souls; and grant, O Lord, that we may never forget this thy wonderful blessing, which thou hast vouchsafed not onely to us, but to all our succeeding generations, that it may still prove an incitement unto us to obey and serve thee in holiness of life; and that improving this Victory to thy glory and our own good, we may obtain the like happy successes in all our future Enterprizes, to the glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our onely Saviour and Deliverer. Amen.

¶ Then

¶ Then shall follow this Prayer, which shall be used continually so long as the Navy is abroad.

O Most glorious, and powerful Lord God, who alone hast spread out the heavens, and compassed the waters with bounds, until night and day come to an end; at whose command the winds blow, and who ruleth the raging of the sea; Thou art terrible in all thy works of wonder, the great God to be feared above all. We therefore adore thy divine Majesty, acknowledging thy power, and imploring thy goodness. Be pleased to receive into thine Almighty and most gracious protection the persons of thy servants that fight for us, and the Ships and Navies in which they serve: preserve them all from the dangers of the sea, and from the violence of the enemy, and from every sad accident: that they may be a safe-guard to our most gracious Soveraign, and his Kingdoms, and a security for such as pass on the seas upon their lawful occasions. Help, Lord, and save them for thy mercies sake; that they may return in safety, with honour and victory, and good success, to enjoy the blessings of the land, and the fruit of their labours; and that all the inhabitants of these Islands, being blest with plenty and prosperity, peace and quietness, may serve thee our God in righteousness, and true holiness, and with a thankful remembrance of all thy mercies may ever praise and glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer

¶ A Prayer of Saint Chryſoſtom.

ALmighty God, who haſt given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common ſupplications unto thee, and doſt promiſe, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requeſts; Fulfil now, O Lord, the deſires and petitions of thy ſervants, as may be moſt expedient for them, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlaſting. Amen.

2 Corinth. 13. 14.

THe grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the love of God, and the fellowſhip of the holy Ghoſt be with us all evermore. Amen.

ALmighty God, whose kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite; have mercy upon the whole Church, and so rule the heart of thy chosen servant Charles our King and Governour, that he (knowing whose Minister he is) may above all things seek thy honour and glory: And that we and all his subjects (duly considering whose authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed Word and Ordinance, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the holy Ghost,

O Almighty God, the ſoveraign Commander of all the world, in whoſe hand is power and might which none is able to withſtand; We bleſs and magnifie thy great and glorious Name for this happy victory, the whole glory whereof we do attribute to thee, who art the only giver of victory. And, we beſeech thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy Goſpel, the honour of our Soveraign, and as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And, we beſeech thee, give us ſuch a ſenſe of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulneſs, ſuch as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy, and obedient walking before thee all our days, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord: To whom with thee, and the holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, ſo in particular for this victory and deliverance, be all glory and honour world without end. Amen.

O Almighty God, who art a ſtrong tower of defence unto thy ſervants againſt the face of their enemies; We yield thee praiſe and thankſgiving for our deliverance from thoſe great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compaſſed. We acknowledge it thy goodneſs that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; beſeeching thee ſtill to continue ſuch thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle, Phil. 4. 4.

REjoyce in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoyce. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any vertue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

The Gospel, S. Matth. V. 43.

YE have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemie: But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you: That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven, for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and and ſendeth rain on the juſt and on the unjuſt. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the Publicans the ſame? And if ye ſalute your brethren onely, what do you more then others? do not even the Publicans ſo? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

I Believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things viſible and inviſible:

And in one Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the onely begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one ſubſtance with the Father, By whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our ſalvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the holy Ghoſt of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified alſo for us under Pontius Pilate. He ſuffered and was buried, And the third day he roſe again according to the Scriptures, And aſcended into heaven, And ſitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he ſhall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whoſe kingdom ſhall have no end.

And I believe in the holy Ghoſt, the Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worſhipped and glorified, Who ſpake by the prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apoſtolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptiſm for the remiſſion of ſins. And I look for the reſurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

¶ Then followeth the Sermon; and after that ſhall be ſaid.

S. Mat. 5. 16. LEt your light ſo ſhine before men, that they may ſee your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in heaven.

S. Mat. 7. 12. Whatſoever ye would that men ſhould do to you, do ye even ſo to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Let us pray for the whole ſtate of Chriſts Church militant here on earth.

ALmighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apoſtle haſt taught us to make prayers and ſupplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beſeech thee moſt mercifully (to accept our alms and oblations, and) to receive theſe our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majeſty, beſeeching thee to inſpire continually the univerſal Church with the ſpirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confeſs thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love. We beſeech thee alſo to ſave and defend all Chriſtian Kings, Princes, and Governours, and eſpecially thy ſervant CHARLES our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed. And grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in Authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently miniſter juſtice, to the puniſhment of wicked-wickedneſs and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion and vertue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Biſhops, and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine ſet forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly adminiſter thy holy Sacraments: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and eſpecially to this congregation here preſent, that with meek heart and due reverence they may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly ſerving thee in holineſs and righteouſneſs all the days of their life. And we moſt humbly beſeech thee of thy goodneſs O Lord, to comfort and ſuccour all them, who in this tranſitory life are in trouble, ſorrow, need, ſickneſs, or any other adverſity. And we alſo bleſs thy holy Name, for all thy ſervants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beſeeching thee to give us grace ſo to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jeſus Chriſts ſake our onely Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

¶ Then ſhall be added this Prayer following.

O Lord God of our ſalvation, without whoſe Aids and Influence all our Strength is Weakneſs, our Courage Raſhneſs, and our Counſel Folly; We thy unworthy Servants, the ſinful People of theſe three Nations, (whom by thy miraculous Providence thou didſt lately reſcue from the Miſeries of a Civil War at home,) haſt now crowned with Victory againſt a potent potent Enemy abroad) in grateful acknowledgement of thy so great, and often-repeated Mercies, are here now before thee with humble, yet inflamed hearts, desirous to offer up unto thee our Sacrifice of praise and thanks; calling Heaven and Earth to witness with us, that as it was the Miracle of thy meer Mercy, which raised us out of the depth of those miserable Confusions, in which we lay; So it is thy Power alone, O our God, by which we stand; thy good Providence, by which we prosper. More particularly, with the highest expressions of our devoutest hearts we magnifie thy great and glorious Name, O Lord our God, for that eminent, and most remarkable Victory, wherewith thou hast lately so wonderfully blest the Arms and Naval Forces of our gracious Soveraign. O continue forth thy loving kindness towards him: Let thy tender Mercies prevent, and follow him all the days of his life: Let his Reign be prosperous, and his Arms victorious; & let the blessings of safety and happy success attend all those that fight his Battels. Subdue more and more unto him the People that is under him, and the Nations under his feet. Preserve him from the gathering together of the froward, and from the Insurrection of the evil doers. Let no weapon that is form'd against him prosper; but make him and his always to return with Honour, and Victory, and Joy, and Triumph. O let all the Blessings of Heaven and Earth be poured out upon the sacred Head of thine Anointed, and from thence flow down even to the skirts of the meanest of his People, in

Peace,

Peace, and Plenty, and Prosperity: That so both Prince and People may with one mind, and with one mouth glorifie thee, O God most gracious, for this thy unspeakable goodness; not onely presenting thee (as this day) the fruit of the lips, giving thanks unto thy Name, but also through the entire course of a holy life ever offering up unto thee Souls and Bodies, which thou hast created, redeemed and preserved, to be a living and holy Sacrifice acceptable unto thee through Jesus Christ: To whom with thee, O Father Almighty, in the unity of the holy Ghost, be glory in the Church throughout all Ages world without end. Amen.

ALmighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest shall let them depart with this blessing.

THe peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledg and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Order for Evening Prayer.

¶ Let him that miniſtreth read with a loud voice, theſe ſentences of Scripture; and then ſay the Exhortation that followeth.

1 Tim. 2. 1. 2. 3. EXhort, that firſt of all ſupplications, prayers, interceſſions, and giving of thanks be made for all men:

For Kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlineſs and honeſty.

For this is good and acceptable in the ſight of God our Saviour.

DEarly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in ſundry places, to acknowledge and confeſs our manifold ſins and wickedneſs, and that we ſhould not diſſemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confeſs them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveneſs of the ſame, by his infinite goodneſs and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our ſins before God, yet ought we moſt chiefly ſo to do, when we we aſſemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to ſet forth his moſt worthy praiſe, to hear his moſt holy word, and to aſk thoſe things which are requiſite and neceſſary as well for the body as the ſoul: Wherefore I pray, and beſeech you as many as are here preſent, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, ſaying after me.

¶ The Confeſſion to be ſaid of the whole congregation after the Miniſter, all kneeling.

ALmighty and moſt merciful Father, We have erred and ſtrayed from thy ways like loſt ſheep, We have followed too much the devices and deſires of our own hearts, We have offended againſt thy holy laws, We have left undone thoſe things which we ought to have done, And we have done thoſe things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miſerable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confeſs their faults; Reſtore thou them that are penitent, according to thy promiſes declared unto mankind in Chriſt Jeſu our Lord; and grant, O moſt merciful Father, for his ſake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and ſober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Abſolution to be pronounced by the Prieſt alone ſtanding; the people ſtill kneeling.

ALmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who deſireth not the death of a ſinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedneſs and live, and hath given power and commandment to his Miniſters, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the abſolution and remiſſion of their ſins: He pardoneth and abſolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Goſpel. Wherefore let us beſeech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that thoſe things may pleaſe him which we do at this preſent, and that the reſt of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, ſo that at the laſt we may come to his eternal joy, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

¶ The people ſhall anſwer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then ſhall the Miniſter kneel, and begin the Lords Prayer; the people alſo repeating it with him.

OUr Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever, Amen.

¶ Then likewiſe he ſhall ſay,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Anſw. And our mouth ſhall ſhew forth thy praiſe.

Prieſt. O God make ſpeed to ſave us.

Anſw.

Anſw. O Lord make haſte to help us.

¶ Here all ſtanding up, the Prieſt ſhall ſay,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghoſt:

Anſwer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever ſhall be: world without end. Amen.

Prieſt. Praiſe ye the Lord.

Anſw. The Lords name be praiſed.

¶ Then ſhall be ſung or ſaid this Hymn following; one Verſe by the Prieſt, and another by the Clerk and people.

Jubilate Deo. Pſal. LXVI.

O Be joyful in God, all ye lands: ſing praiſes unto the honour of his Name, make his praiſe to be glorious.

Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works: through the greatneſs of thy power ſhall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

For all the world ſhall worſhip thee: ſing of thee, and praiſe thy Name.

O come hither, and behold the works of God: how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.

He turned the ſea into dry land: ſo that they went through the water on foot; there did we rejoyce thereof.

He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the people: and ſuch, as will not believe, ſhall not be able to exalt themſelves.

O praiſe our God, ye people: and make the voice of his praiſe to be heard;

Who holdeth our ſoul in life: and ſuffereth not our feet to ſlip.

For thou, O God, haſt proved us: thou alſo haſt tried us, like as ſilver is tried.

Thou

Thou broughtest us into the snare: and laidst trouble upon our loins.

Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

I will go into thine house with burnt-offerings: and will pay thee my vows, which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.

I will offer unto thee fat burnt-sacrifices, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.

O come hither, and hearken, all ye, that fear God: and I will tell you, what he hath done for my soul.

I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praises with my tongue.

If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart: the Lord will not hear me.

But God hath heard me: and considered the voice of my prayer.

Praised be God, who hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal. xcii.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most Highest;

To tell of thy loving kindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night-season;

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute: upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

For

For thou, Lord, haſt made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoyce in giving praiſe for the operations of thy hands.

O Lord, how glorious are thy works: thy thoughts are very deep.

An unwiſe man doth not well conſider this: and a fool doth not underſtand it.

When the ungodly are green as the graſs, and when all the workers of wickedneſs do flouriſh; then ſhall they be deſtroyed for ever; but thou, Lord, art the moſt higheſt for evermore.

For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, lo, thine enemies ſhall periſh: and all the workers of wickedneſs ſhall be deſtroyed.

But mine horn ſhall be exalted like the horn of an unicorn: for I am anointed with freſh oil.

Mine eye alſo ſhall ſee his luſt of mine enemies: and mine ear ſhall hear his deſire of the wicked that ariſe up againſt me.

The righteous ſhall flouriſh like a palm-tree: and ſhall ſpread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

Such as be planted in the houſe of the Lord: ſhall flouriſh in the courts of the houſe of our God.

They alſo ſhall bring forth more fruit in their age: and ſhall be fat and well liking.

That they may ſhew how true the Lord my ſtrength is: and that there is no unrighteouſneſs in him.

Laudate Dominum. Pſal. cxlvii.

O Praiſe the Lord, for it is a good thing to ſing praiſes unto our God: yea, a joyful and a pleaſant thing it is to be thankful.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: and gather together the out-casts of Israel.

He healeth those that are broken in heart: and giveth medicine to heal their sicknes.

He telleth the number of the stars: and calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

The Lord setteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving: sing praises upon the harp unto our God.

Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth: and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.

Who giveth fodder unto the cattel: and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.

He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neither delighteth he in any mans legs.

But the Lords delight is in them that fear him: and put their trust in his mercy.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Sion.

For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates: and hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: and his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wooll: and scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who is able to abide his frost?

He

He ſendeth out his word, and melteth them: he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

He ſheweth his word unto Jacob: his ſtatutes and ordinances unto Iſrael.

He hath not dealt ſo with any nation: neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.

The firſt Leſſon is 1 Sam. 2. to 11.

AND Hannah prayed, and ſaid, My heart rejoyceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies: becauſe I rejoyce in thy ſalvation. There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none beſide thee: neither is there any rock like our God. Talk no more ſo exceeding proudly, let not arrogancie come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that ſtumbled, are girt with ſtrength. They that were full, have hired out themſelves for bread, and they that were hungry, ceaſed: ſo that the barren hath born ſeven, and ſhe that hath many children is waxed feeble. The Lord killeth, and maketh alive, he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up. He raiſeth up the poor out of the duſt, and lifteth up the begger from the dunghil, to ſet them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lords, and he hath ſet the world upon them. He will keep the feet of his ſaints, and the wicked ſhall be ſilent in darkneſs; for by ſtrength ſhall no man prevail. The adverſaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces: out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth, and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

Magnificat.

My soul doth magnifie the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembring his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

The second Lesson is, 1 Thess. 5.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. For your selves ſelves know perfectly that the day of the Lord ſo cometh as a thief in the night. For when they ſhall ſay, Peace and ſafety; then ſudden deſtruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they ſhall not eſcape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkneſs, that that day ſhould overtake you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkneſs. Therefore let us not ſleep as do others: but let us watch and be ſober. For they that ſleep, ſleep in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night. But let us who are of the day, be ſober, putting on the breaſt-plate of faith, and love, and for an helmet, the hope of ſalvation. For God hath not appointed us to wrath; but to obtain ſalvation by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who died for us, that whether we wake or ſleep, we ſhould live together with him. Wherefore comfort your ſelves together, and edifie one another, even as alſo ye do. And we beſeech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admoniſh you; and to eſteem them very highly in love for their works ſake. And be at peace among your ſelves. Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, ſupport the weak, be patient toward all men. See that none render evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among your ſelves, and to all men. Rejoyce evermore. Pray without ceaſing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Chriſt Jeſus concerning you. Quench not the spirit. Despise not prophesyings. Prove all things: hold fast that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace sanctifie you wholly: and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. Brethren, pray for us. Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss. I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcviii.

O Sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Shew your selves joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, rejoyce and give thanks.

Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms: O shew your selves joyful before the Lord the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let

Let the flouds clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord: for he is come to judge the earth.

With righteouſneſs ſhall he judge the world: and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then ſhall be ſaid the Creed by the Miniſter, and the people ſtanding.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: and in Jeſus Chriſt his onely Son our Lord; who was conceived by the holy Ghoſt, born of the Virgin Mary, ſuffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead and buried; he deſcended into hell; the third day he roſe again from the dead; he aſcended into heaven, and ſitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he ſhall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the holy Ghoſt, the holy Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveneſs of ſins, the reſurrection of the body, and the life everlaſting, Amen.

¶ And after that, theſe Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Miniſter firſt pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Anſwer.

And with thy ſpirit.

Miniſter.

Let us pray.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Chriſt

Chriſt have mercy upon us.
Lord have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Miniſter, Clerks and people, ſhall ſay the Lords prayer with a loud voice.

OUr Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Prieſt ſtanding up, ſhall ſay,

O Lord ſhew thy mercy upon us.

Anſwer.

And grant us thy ſalvation.

Prieſt.

O Lord ſave the King.

Anſwer.

And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Prieſt.

Indue thy Miniſters with righteouſneſs.

Anſwer.

And make thy choſen people joyful.

Prieſt.

O Lord ſave thy people.

Anſwer.

And bleſs thine inheritance.

Prieſt.

Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Anſwer.

Becauſe there is none other that fighteth for us, but onely thou, O God.

Prieſt.

Prieſt.

O God make clean our hearts within us.

Anſwer.

And take not thy holy Spirit from us.

¶ Inſtead of the firſt Collect ſhall theſe two be uſed.

O Almighty God, the ſoveraign Commander of all the world, in whoſe hand is power and might which none is able to withſtand; We bleſs and magnifie thy great and glorious Name for this happy Victory, the whole glory whereof we do aſcribe to thee, who art the only Giver of Victory. And, we beſeech thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy Goſpel, the honour of our Soveraign, and, as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And, we beſeech thee, give us ſuch a ſenſe of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulneſs, ſuch as may appear in our lives by an humble, holy, and obedient walking before thee all our days, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord: To whom with thee, and the holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, ſo in particular for this Victory and Deliverance, be all glory and honour world without end. Amen.

O Almighty God, who art a ſtrong Tower of defence unto thy ſervants againſt the face of their Enemies; We yield thee praiſe and thankſgiving for our deliverance from thoſe great and apparent Dangers wherewith we were compaſſed. We acknowledge it thy gentleneſs that we were not delivered over as a Prey unto them; beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our Enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

LIghten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy onely Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Kings Majesty.

O Lord our heavenly Father, High and Mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the onely Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy Throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Soveraign Lord King Charles, and so replenish him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way; endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts; grant him in health and wealth long to live; strengthen him, that he may vanquish and overcome all his Enemies, and finally after this life

he

be may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family.

ALmighty God, the Fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our gracious Queen Catherine, Mary the Queen-Mother, James Duke of York, and all the Royal Family; Endue them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heavenly grace, prosper them with all happiness, and bring them to thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; send down upon our Bishops, and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord God of our salvation, without whose Aids and Influence all our Strength is Weakness, our Courage Rashness, and our Counsel Folly; We thy unworthy Servants, the sinful People of these three Nations, (whom by thy miraculous Providence thou didst lately rescue from the Miseries of a Civil War at home, and hast now crowned with Victory against a potent Enemy abroad) in grateful acknowledgement of thy so great, and often-repeated Mercies, are here now before thee with humble, yet inflamed hearts, desirous to offer up unto thee our Sacrifice of praise and thanks: calling Heaven and Earth to witness with us, that as it was thy Miracle of thy meer Mercy, which raised us out of the depth of those miserable Confusions, in which we lay; so it is thy Power alone, O our God, by which we stand; thy good Providence, by which we prosper. Wee particularly, with the highest expressions of our devoutest hearts we magnifie thy great and glorious Name, O Lord our God, for that eminent, and most remarkable Victory, wherewith thou hast lately so wonderfully blest the Arms and Naval Forces of our gracious Soveraign. O continue forth thy loving kindness towards him: Let thy tender Mercies prevent, and follow him all the days of his life: Let his Reign be prosperous, and his Arms victorious; and let the blessings of safety, and happy success attend all those that fight his Battels. Subdue more and more unto him the People that is under him, and the Nations under his feet. Preserve him from the gathering together of the froward, and from the insurrection of the evil doers. Let no weapon that is form'd against him prosper; but make Him and His always to return with Honour, and Victory, and Joy, and Triumph. O let all the Blessings of Heaven and Earth be poured out upon the sacred Head of thine Anointed, and from thence flow down even to the skirts of the meanest of his People, in Peace, and Plenty, and Prosperity; That so both Prince and People may with one mind, and with

with one mouth glorifie thee, O God most gracious, for this thy unspeakable goodness; not onely presenting thee (as this day) the fruit of the lips, giving thanks unto thy Name, but also through the entire course of a holy life ever offering up unto thee Souls and Bodies, which thou hast created, redeemed and preserved, to be a living and holy Sacrifice acceptable unto thee through Jesus Christ: To whom with thee, O Father Almighty, in the unity of the holy Ghost, be glory in the Church throughout all Ages world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow this Prayer, which shall be used continually so long as the Navy is abroad.

O Most glorious, and powerful Lord God, who alone hast spread out the heavens, and compassed the waters with bounds, until night and day come to an end; at whose command the winds blow, and who rulest the raging of the sea; Thou art terrible in all thy works of wonder, the great God to be feared above all. We therefore adore thy divine Majesty, acknowledging thy power, and imploring thy goodness. Be pleased to receive into thine Almighty and most gracious protection the persons of thy servants that fight for us, and the Ships and Navies in which they serve: preserve them all from the dangers of the sea, and from the violence of the enemy, and from every sad accident: that they may be a safe-guard to our most gracious Soveraign, and his Kingdoms, and a security for such as pass on the seas upon their their lawful occasions. Help, Lord, and save them for thy mercies sake; that they may return in safety, with honour and victory, and good success, to enjoy the blessings of the land, and the fruit of their labours; and that all the inhabitants of these Islands, being blest with plenty and prosperity, peace and quietness, may serve thee our God in righteousness, and true holiness, and with a thankful remembrance of all thy mercies may ever praise and glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of Saint Chrysostom.

ALmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Corinth. 13.14.

THe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.
